

THE HARVEY SKIDOO TREE SERIES

DISCUSSION: SUGGESTED APPROACH

Encourage students to

- really explore the topics
- include details
- speculate
- incorporate some new vocabulary and grammatical structures
- offer opinions
- react to other's opinions
- refer to the handout

2

MRS WARRINGTON

Q1	Mrs Warrington was described, among other things, as 'unassuming'. Try to come up with how she normally dressed, spoke with her students and conducted herself with her fellow teachers in a meeting.
Q2	Mrs Warrington was a very good teacher but even she had some frustrations and difficulties. What do you imagine they could have been?
Q3	Compare your favourite and most memorable teachers with others in your group. Is there anything they have in common?
Q4	If you tell a friend that you met a really interesting person the other day, what qualities would that interesting person have?

Q1	Mrs Warrington was described, among other things, as 'unassuming'. Try to come up with how she normally dressed, spoke with her students and conducted herself with her fellow teachers in a meeting.
Q2	Mrs Warrington was a very good teacher but even she had some frustrations and difficulties. What do you imagine they could have been?
Q3	Compare your favourite and most memorable teachers with others in your group. Is there anything they have in common?
Q4	If you tell a friend that you met a really interesting person the other day, what qualities would that interesting person have?

Q1	Mrs Warrington was described, among other things, as 'unassuming'. Try to come up with how she normally dressed, spoke with her students and conducted herself with her fellow teachers in a meeting.
Q2	Mrs Warrington was a very good teacher but even she had some frustrations and difficulties. What do you imagine they could have been?
Q3	Compare your favourite and most memorable teachers with others in your group. Is there anything they have in common?
Q4	If you tell a friend that you met a really interesting person the other day, what qualities would that interesting person have?