	JAMES SPAM TOASTER	James Veitch
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=C4Uc-cztsJo

We often get annoying phonecalls and emails from people who don't know us or care about us but they want our money. James Veitch decided to have some fun when he received a spam email one day.

VOCABULARY LOOK	STUDENT HANDOUT
Here is some vocabulary which might help you in answering the questions and in your speaking: a scam    preposterous    gullible    BS    to get back at somebody    to get on someone's nerves    a broken man

0:00 – 0:46	INTRO: CONTENTS OF FIRST SPAM EMAIL
Q1	The following 3 statements were in the email James received.      a- What is unlikely about each of them? b- Do you see any mistakes?
- I got your contact from a South African in Ghana. - I need to move 1,000 Carats of polished Diamond. - Note, this transaction is 100% risk free and dose not attracts any danger.

0:46 – 1:02	ORIENTATION
Q2	Why is it a good idea to make a spam email preposterous (if you are the one creating the scam)?

1:23 – 1:32	PHONE NUMBER
Q3	Kamanda Koroma asked James to contact him and leave a phone number. Which phone number did James give him?

3:22 – 3:44	VALID ID
Q4	Kamanda Koroma then asked James to send a valid form of identification, such as his passport or driver's. What do you think James sent? (Predict before viewing.)

3:44 – 4:05	GIFT FROM BANK FOR OPENING NEW ACCOUNT
Q5	James was asked to open an account in a bank which was in fact, a false one. James diverted the focus to getting a free gift when he opened that new bank account. What gift do you think James felt it should be? (Predict before viewing.)

4:05 – 9:00	GETTING ON THE SPAMMER'S NERVES
Q6	Watch the next 5 minutes of the video & remember some of the ways that James started to get on the spammer's nerves.

9:00 – 9:32	SOME ADVICE
Q7	James encouraged the audience to do something at home but he gave some advice. What was it?

DISCUSS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• What do you think of the presenter? What did he do to make his presentation more humorous?</li> <li>• It may seem incredible but every day many people are taken in by these scams. Why can't the police do anything about them?</li> <li>• How could you get back at the email scammers?</li> </ul>
