Cyborgs
Years ago the first heart transplant made the news. In recent times progress towards successful face & even head transplants is being made. The idea of augmenting our basic constitution, even fundamentally changing it seems more attainable with technological advances. What special abilities do you foresee happening within the next 30 years?		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● it's a question of time</li> <li>● on the brink of VERBing</li> <li>● beyond a shadow of a doubt</li> <li>● It's bound to happen</li> </ul>
Structures to use:
1) comparatives with adverbs ex: not nearly/quite as far/a bit better than		● it boils down to st
2) Optional: you choose another structure		● to be up to sb
