The viewer sees an image and guesses what it could be. (Two possible interpretations for each image.)
A personality evaluation is done, depending on which of two interpretations is seen first.

11 Optical Illusions That'll Reveal Your Personality Type

Bright side https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Dq0gmzTDqaA

Teaching English

Vocab to pre-teach: spot st   draw attention to st   tilt your head (to the left)

TEACHING SUGGESTION

In this video the spoken text is also presented in written form so the activity has been designed to use that aspect as a reinforcing element to the vocabulary and for confirmation of answers to the task. The general idea is to

1-Pause the video at each opening image to a new segment (the first and underlined of the times supplied below, ex: 0:29) while the students guess what the image is, or both images, if possible.
2-Go over the vocabulary in the two Analysis boxes (elicit pronunciation & meaning)
3-Students individually or in pairs write the image (ex: frog or horse) they think corresponds to that set of descriptors in the Analysis box.
4-Play the section of the video that gives the answers (the other times provided; ex: 0:29-0:51 and 0:51 – 1:14) and students check. Allow for a little class speaking if people want to disagree, for example, before moving on to next segment.

		Images you see	Analysis
1	0:29-0:33-0:51	frog	thoughtful have an analytical mind and critical approach
	0:52-1:14	horse	straightforward trustworthy reliable
2	2:04-2:08-2:26	2 squirrels on a tree branch	can see the big picture and solve problems effortlessly
	2:27-2:52	woman's face	outstanding observational skills
3	3:52-3:56-4:14	two faces	occasionally need to be on your own love nature & solitude tactful
	4:15-4:30	tree	romantic at heart really value the people in their life positive & friendly personality can calm others down
4	5:50-5:54-6:11	woman looking out window	a realist rather than an idealist regarded as cynical think that all good things may come to an end one day
	6:12-6:27	skull	tend to overlook danger sometimes too spontaneous and a bit naive often unprepared for unpleasant consequences
5	6:32-6:35-6:51	man playing saxophone	right-brained creative use different forms of art to express yourself high level of emotional intelligence imagination helps solve problems in outside-of-box way
	6:52-7:14	woman's face	left-brained forte is analytical thinking good at numbers and languages logical and problem-solver
6	7:50-7:55-8:10	seal	astonishing attention to details sound logic great at math can master languages with ease
	8:11-8:28	donkey	highly intuitive value their freedom can often anticipate something that may happen

POSSIBLE DISCUSSION THEMES:

●Do you think simple tests like these can reveal much about someone's personality?
●Some people with a high sense of 'street smarts' can 'read' a person (know what they're like) by interacting with them for just a minute or two. Do you agree? What would they be checking out and how might they do it?
●Can people learn to think in other ways, to understand or see how different personality types perceive the world?

A DEEPER LOOK (optional for more background or a follow-up)

Here are 2 more videos you may want to try out or recommend to your students:

11 Optical Illusions That Will Trick Your Eyes https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=llLVk2fqylA

10 Mind Blowing Optical Illusions   https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=-IWk5NkxQF8